How the Books Through Bars Project works

- The books are gifts to the person receiving them. They do not need to be returned to the Book Program.
- There is no charge for the books.
- We provide books to individual prisoners. We do not provide books to libraries or to administrators.
- We do not have a catalog, offer pen-pal services, or maintain a mailing list.
- We fill requests as soon as possible. What is available depends on what is donated and what is in stock when we fulfill the request.
- Submit this form to the above address through USPS OR email
- Our Books Through Bars Project is run by our friend Sharif, and we ship books to prisoners in all states.
